DEDICATION

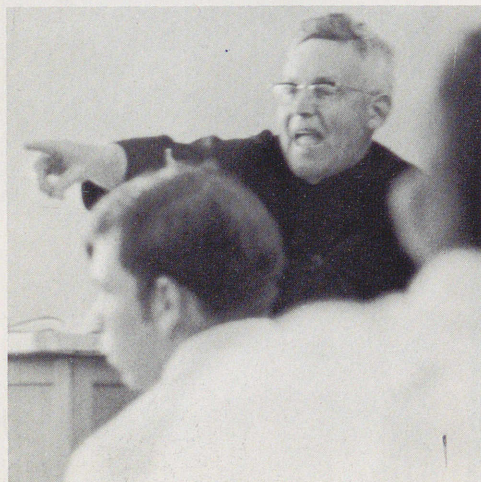

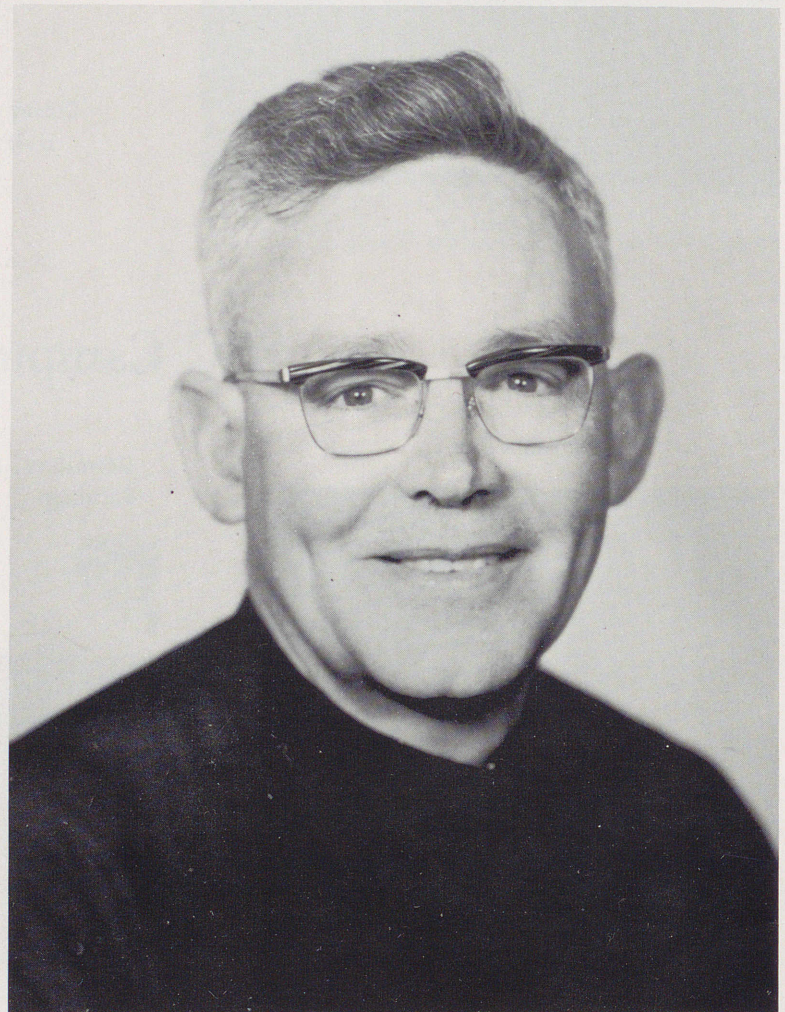

After thirty-four years of service as a Brother of the Sacred Heart and twelve years at St. Stanislaus, the first edition of the Reflection is dedicated to Brother Loyola Mattingly for his many years of service.

Brother entered the Brothers of the Sacred Heart on September 10, 1934. He received a B.S. degree in Social Studies at Spring Hill College.

He first came to St. Stanislaus in 1948 and stayed until 1951. He returned in 1959 and has been here since. While at St. Stanislaus, Brother has taught a variety of subjects including: Typing, Latin I and II, French I and II, English, U.S. History, Plane Geometry, Trigonometry, and Solid Geometry.

After school hours Brother can be found somewhere on campus. Either riding his tractor or busy breaking up cement in a nearby field.

All in all he has played a great part in the life of St. Stanislaus preparing students for college and the world which we are preparing to enter. Which is the greatest tribute anyone can make.

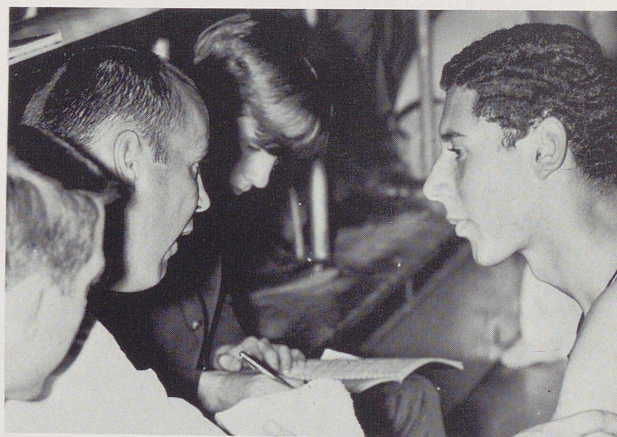

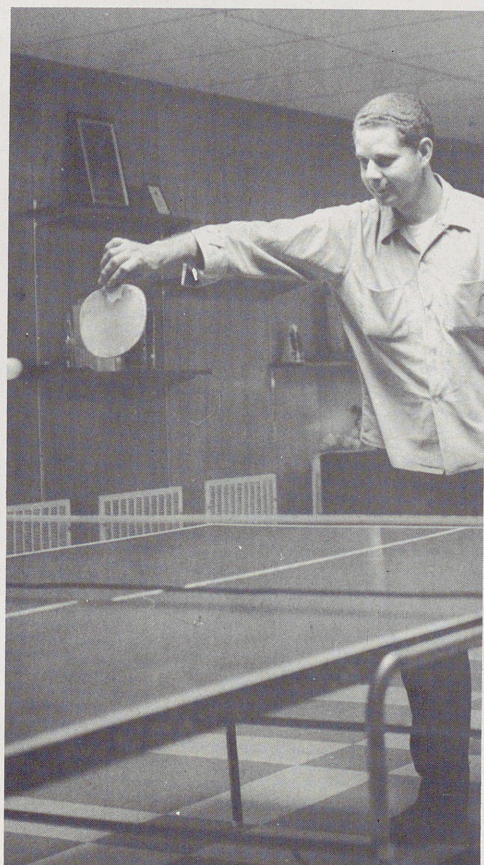

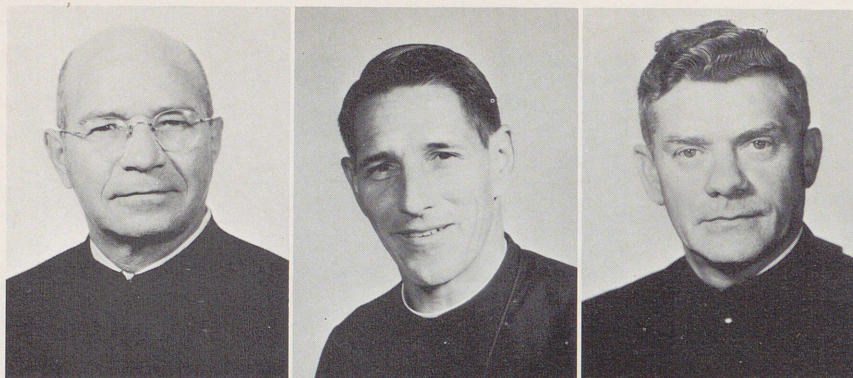

FACULTY

Classes, paper grading, lesson planning, make-up tests, faculty meetings - the Brothers, Priests, and lay teachers have a hectic day. Many double as club sponsors and other moderators.

Such busy work demands relaxation, which ranges from decorating a Christmas tree to a lengthy game of Ping-pong. They also attend professional meetings and summer college sessions to improve instruction methods.

The Brothers of the Sacred Heart, the Priests of the Society of the Divine Word and the lay teachers are more than educators, everyone discovers that they are warm individuals with an amazing sense of humor and definite personalities, who help make St. Stanislaus what it is.

STUDENTS

"I've got an English test today." "What did we have in Physics?" These are the normal sounds heard in the halls before school in the morning. Ring-g-g ... the morning bell resounds and everyone lines up with "eager" anticipation of what the day will bring. Classes start with the famous expression, "Take out a half sheet of paper," telling that there is a quiz. With this the usual day begins.

In this daily ritual the classroom is the laboratory; the teachers, the guides; and the inquisitiveness of the student, his own inspiration. It is this profound inquisitiveness that leads all to seek additional knowledge through outside reading and study, and to explore the "Why's" behind principles. The student recognizes that his limited information is small in comparison to the vastness of man's accumulated knowledge.

SPORTS

As a moth is drawn to a candle's flame, so is the multitude of spirit-filled fans drawn to St. Stanislaus' athletic events. Arrayed in different buttons and ribbons, students, teachers - everyone - flock to cheer the Rock-A-Chaws to victory. For the freshmen there is the thrill of the first kickoff, the first basket, the first base hit; for the seniors, knowledge that these are the last few games. Yelling and screaming, everyone is on the edge of his seat. As the game unfolds, tense moments of play add fervor to the fans. Seconds tick by - 5 ..., 4 ..., 3 ..., 2 ..., 1 ..., and it's all over, the shouting, swarming crowd empties the stands.

Whether the team came through with a sparkling victory or fell in disastrous defeat, the very spirit of the sport will be remembered in future times by both players and fans.

Baseball

Although off to a slow start, the baseball team won 4 out of their last 6 games to finish the season with a 7-8 record. The Rocks were in almost every game, and they lost four games by less than three runs. Good pitching was provided by Sylvan Ladner and Emile Lewis, while Mike Gemelli, Bobby Marshall, Bert Chevis, Donny Johnson, and David Savoy did most of the hitting.

When asked about the season, Coach Thriffiley commented that lack of senior experience was the determining factor; Never the less with several fine letterman returning next year, the team will become a well-rounded group of baseball participants.

ACTIVITIES

This year at St. Stanislaus, there was an epidemic - that is if enthusiasm is a contagious agent. The "spirit of enthusiasm" caught on the first of school, reached a climatic point at homecoming, and with the blasting booster of "Go! Go!" eagerly raced on for the next activity.

On every front, the Rock-a-Chaws met the best competition in the area. Not satisfied with just enthusiasm, the Rocks always brought along talent too, and as often as not, they walked with some top honors. In this way, the school has emerged as a "power school" - and that just can't be done without the "spirit of enthusiasm."

National Honor Society
